To provide proper airflow at any given location, it is essential that the ductwork is constructed properly. A well-made duct system not only distributes supply air, return air and exhaust air more efficiently, it also has a longer life cycle . Iqra Aircon Pvt Ltd owns a fully automated duct manufacturing plant in Greater Noida. The unit manufactures customised ducting systems with high level of accuracy, quality and engineering. The manufacturing process conforms to HVAC standards like SMACNA, DW & IS.
